DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means", "comprising" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 1-26 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-12 of U.S. Patent No. 6,282,817 and claims 1-31 of U.S. Patent No. 6,725,575. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because patent '817 and Patent '575 claim a more specific embodiment than the instant application.

Once the applicant has received a patent for a species or a more specific embodiment, he is not entitled to a patent for the generic or broader invention, because the more specific "anticipates" the broader. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-3, 6, 9-13, 16, 17, 19,22, 23 and 25-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Jongejan (5,924,177). Jongejan '177 discloses an article of footwear comprising a shoe having a first flap and a second flap, said first and second flaps having a plurality of eyelets extending between a first end and a second end of said flaps, a lace comprising a first end and a second end, said lace having a length sufficient to be threaded through said plurality of eyelets; and a flange (free ends 56 of protruding edge 54) located proximate said second ends of said flaps; wherein said lace is secured, at least one loop is formed adjacent said first ends of said flaps, and when said at least one loop is received by said flange, said at least one loop extends from said first ends of said flaps proximate said second ends of said flaps. See Figure 1 embodiment.

Art Unit: 3728

With respect to claims 2 and 11, note releasable clamp (50).

With respect to claims 6 and 22, note gripping surfaces in Figure 5 embodiment.

The method is submitted to read on those steps inherent in the use of Jongejan '177.
